Dear Sir

I will inform you I am quite well situated. And enjoy myself very much. I know you are having a grand time. I will not enter into farther details in regard to my situation. But I will say I was agreeably disappointed on coming down here. My place is much pleasanter than what I anticipated.

I am in the same room with Ed. Pease. he is chief Store Keeper. Mr. James. Stule. Will - Butterfield. and Phil. Harman are at the Captain's H^d Log.

Give my regards to Johnny. also Charlie. Dr. Graff. Remember me to Dick. Parrott and Geo. Winters also. Joe. Maud.

I am with Esteem
